TO APPLY

yu.edu/graduate/apply

Through the B.A./M.A. in Jewish Studies, YU undergraduates can complete up to four Bernard Revel Graduate School of Jewish Studies courses (twelve credits) in their senior year that count towards both their undergraduate and graduate degrees, accelerating their path to the graduate degree and saving tuition along the way. After completing their bachelor's, students continue seamlessly on to complete the M.A. in Jewish Studies at Revel.

ABOUT THE M.A. IN JEWISH STUDIES

The 30-credit M.A. in Jewish Studies provides a broad and deep knowledge of the field as well as intellectual skills that can prepare interested students for the pursuit of a life of teaching and research. A Revel education has also provided students with a foundation for the pursuit of a variety of other careers, including law, business, education, and community service. Many of our graduates have gone on to earn their MBA, JD, MD, or Ph.D. in various disciplines. Our unsurpassed reputation opens a world of possibilities to you.

The men and women who study at Revel find themselves in a non-denominational school with a faculty of eighteen professors specializing in Jewish Studies and a curriculum encompassing a broad array of courses taught at the highest academic level in Bible, Talmud, Jewish Philosophy and Mysticism, and Jewish History. Their experience is enhanced by the distinctive Jewish context that Revel provides. Learn more at: yu.edu/revel/bachelor-arts-master-arts
